TOTAL PARTS I AND II COMBINED: _____

- LAT 2964, LAT 4964, GR 2964, and GR 4964 can not count toward a Classical Studies Major.
- No course taken Pass/Fail can be included in a Classical Studies Major.
- Independent Study (4974), Special Study (4984), or Undergraduate Research (4994) in any department may also be substituted if the topic is fitting. Permission to include such courses must be granted by the Classical Studies Coordinator.
- LAT 3004 and/or 4004 may be included either for Part I: Classical Studies or Part II: Classical Languages, but not both, unless a student, however, has taken more than 3 credit hours of LAT 3004. The additional hours can then be used in the other part of the Classical Studies Major.

Additional information regarding Classical Studies Major requirements:

1. In-major GPA is calculated as the GPA in all courses taken in each of the two components of the Classical Studies Major. A minimum of 2.0 GPA overall is required for graduation.
2. Students must earn a minimum grade of C (2.0) in all courses required for the Classical Studies Major.
3. In addition to the satisfactory progress made toward a degree policy required by the University, satisfactory progress towards a Major in Classical Studies requires that, upon having attempted 72 hours, a Classical Studies student must have a minimum of a 2.0 in-major GPA, and have completed at least 15 credit hours towards the Major.
4. A Classical Studies student must complete a minimum of 120 non-duplicated semester credits.
5. A Classical Studies student must complete the University Core Curriculum appropriate for the term and year of entrance, including the University Core Requirements, such as Writing Intensive.
6. U.S. History requirement: Students entering Fall 2001 or later must "demonstrate proficiency in American History" to graduate from Virginia Tech. See Undergraduate Catalog for ways to fulfill this requirement.
7. Foreign Languages Requirement: A Classical Studies student fulfills the University entrance requirement (two years of high school study of same language) and the College of Arts and Sciences entrance requirement (three years of high school study of same language) by completing GR 1106 or LAT 1106. Any course used to fulfill the University and College Foreign Language Requirement cannot count toward graduation or the Classical Studies Major.
