The table below is a rough guide. Placement can vary, depending on the level of proficiency reached in high school (not just the number of years). Placement in language courses also varies from language to language. See a specific language advisor to determine final placement.

Enrollment Procedures for Foreign Language Courses

Uninterrupted instruction is particularly crucial in foreign language study. Unfortunately, seats in elementary and intermediate foreign language courses will be limited. If classes are full, students may need to postpone their foreign language study at VT. We are able to accommodate a fair number of students through the force-add procedure.

Getting into a Full Class / New Force-Add Policy for 1105 language courses

- Students will add classes on a first-come, first-serve basis as students are dropped from class. Many seats open up through this process. We urge students to be persistent online about getting into classes.
- Attend the class the first week. Students not attending class the first or second day are automatically dropped from the class. This makes room for other students wishing to add the class.
- Instructors will not be signing force/adds.

SEE THE NEXT PAGE FOR FORCE/ADD PROCEDURES FOR SPANISH CLASSES
Force-Add Policy for ALL Spanish classes:

- It is best to consult the Spanish home pages for any changes: http://www.fll.vt.edu/Spanish
- Do NOT contact the professor or office staff about force adding.
- Limited force-adds may be allowed for Spanish classes, depending on enrollments.
- What to do: If you are unable to add the class online, you should attend the class the first week of the semester (unless the professor tells you otherwise). Each day, the professor will pass around a "force/add hopefuls" sheet or use another method for determining which students want to force add.
- We must give first consideration to declared Spanish majors, Spanish minors majoring in International or Interdisciplinary Studies, other SPAN minors, then other students, in rank order.
- Often by the end of the first week of classes, students' schedules shift around so that space does open up. If space becomes available, the professor will force add you and notify you of this. It is wise to continue attending the class and doing the assignments in the meantime, in case you are able to get into the class.

Nota bene for all languages:

1. In all languages except Spanish, 1105, 2105, and 3105 are offered only in the fall. 1106, 2106, and 3106 are offered only in the spring.
2. If a student has 3 years (or more) of a single foreign language in high school, departmental permission is required to take 1105 and/or 1106. If such permission is granted, the course will count toward graduation.
3. AP foreign language credits and 3000 level IB credits are awarded as ‘elective’ credits. Students must see a FLL advisor, the Chair, or the Associate Chair of FLL to request credit to match specific courses.
4. Students not attending the first and second class of (1000-level) and intermediate (2000-level) courses in Chinese, French, German, Japanese, Italian, Arabic and Spanish will be dropped from the course.
