Course and Trip Details 2015

Students will receive six semester hours of credit for JPN 3954 Summer Study Abroad.

Students will choose to stay in a home-stay with a Japanese family or a temporary apartment, located near The Kyoto Japanese Language School.

The estimated price for the program is $6,780. This price is subject to change based on the exchange rate. The price includes:

- Accommodation (if you choose the home-stay program, most breakfasts and dinners will be provided by your Japanese family).
- Summer Intensive Courses (tuition and learning materials) at the Kyoto Japanese Language School
- Culture activities and excursions, admission, transportation fees in Kyoto
- Several group lunches or dinners
- Trips outside of Kyoto, including Shinkansen (bullet train) fare, and hotel in Tokyo:
  - Tokyo, Hiroshima, Miyajima, Nara, Osaka

The price does not include tuition at Virginia Tech. The study-abroad summer tuition rates for 2015 have not yet been set, but in-state tuition for Study Abroad programs for the 2010-2011 year was $1,782; out-of-state was $4,606. With tuition the total cost of the program (excluding pocket money and expenses not mentioned above) will be approximately $8,362 for in-state students and $11,186 for out-of-state students.

Financial Aid

Eligible VT students can apply their financial aid to tuition and/or to program costs. Students should contact a financial aid advisor. In addition to basic application forms, students must fill out a special study abroad application form. For details, check the Global Education Office webpage.

Eligibility and Admission

Any student 18 years or older by beginning of the program and in good standing at an accredited US university may apply. There is rolling admission with a 20-student limit.
